SECTION H : COMPREHENSION OPEN-ENDED (10 marks)

Read the passage below and answer questions 41 to 45.

Norman Ho, a butcher, caused panic in his town after he got himself a new pet. It was a gorilla that weighed 194 kilogrammes. It was equivalent to the weight of three male adults. He had trapped the 14-month old gorilla in South Africa and smuggled it home. He kept the primate in a steel cage because he was afraid of losing it.

5

The gorilla, almost 2 metres tall, ate two kilogrammes of herbs, stems and roots every afternoon. It accompanied its master on evening walks in the forest and the occasional drive around town. During the evening walks, the gorilla ate plants and shoots, Norman believed that this has helped the primate to digest its food.

10

However, his neighbours were not comfortable and reported him to the authorities. Soon, the police came and arrested the owner for bringing the gorilla into the country without a permit. As the gorilla was a protected animal, it meant that the law prohibited anyone from capturing this animal.

41. What was Norman's new pet?

42. According to the passage, what helped the gorilla digest its food?

43. Why was Norman arrested?

44. Which word from the passage has the same meaning as "did not allow"?

45. Why did the neighbours feel uncomfortable about Norman and his pet?
